[Carrespondence of the Michmond Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, May 11, 1886.

Reports were received here this morning of a murder committed en Sunday evening near Whitaker's Mill, in North Carolina. The participants in the affair were two negro women named Mittie Bell and Annie Bailey. The former, and probably both of them, had been drinking. They quarrelled when they met, and the quarrel resulted in a fight. Bell was armed with a raxor which she used with terrible and fatal effect, disembowelling and alsahing her adversary in a manner that caused death in a few minutes. The murderess was arrested and locked up in jail, and the body of the victim was interred, but was taken from the grave yesterday to be viewed by the coroner's vesterday to be viewed by the coroner's tury. The cause of the quarrel is not tated.

The fine storenouse belonging to and T. B. Smith, in Templeton district, in Prince George county, was destroyed by fire this morning about 4 o'clock, with its entire stock of goods, comprising general merchandise. Mr. Smith and his two sons were asleep in Smith and his two sons were awaken-the house at the time, and were awaken-ed by the fire and smoke in time to es-cape by jurping from the windows in their night-clothing. They saved no-thing from the fire, and their neighbors kindly furnished them with clothing. Mr. Smith had about $300 in banknotes locked up in the store, which was lost. The loss will be about $2,000. on which there is an insurance of $1,000. The fire was doubtless the work of some malicious person.

Mr. Edmund Haddon died a day or T. Haddon, near Dinwiddie Courthouse, in the eighty-seventh year of his age. His mother died a few years ago at the advanced age of nearly one hundred years. The death of Mr. Haddon realls a tragic event of a third of a ceutury ago. He was the last surviving member of the jury who tried Dan-dridge Epes in 1848 for the marder of Adolphus Muir. This was one of the most celebrated cases ever tried in the courts in Southside Virginia, and holds a prominent place in the criminal an-nals of the State. Epes was arrested in Texas, and was executed after con-

It is remarked by those who have attended the trial in Prince George Circuit Court of Holmes R. He reads the newspapers, appears unconcerned and indifferent, and does not seem as one on trial for his life. But many who have observed ters. The people need this rem-him declare that all this indifference is edy. They demand it and the assumed, and that at times his anxiety betrays itself. Not more than one third of the witnesses have as yet been put on the stand, but it is believed an effort will be made to conclude the trial by Saturday night. The jury is an intelligent one, and is composed of some of the best citizens of the county.

Growing up with the Country.

We are growing up with the country. We commenced a few years ago and we have grown very rapidly. At home we are a cause of marvel and wonder so rapid has been our growth. We are going to the remotest parts of the country to grow up with them as they settle and grow up. At the same time we are going to remain where we have been for a long time and continue to grow as the country grows. We are not omnipresent. No! but we propose to penetrate every settlement where the U.S. mails go and there can be found a place in which goods are sold. We can now be found in every city, large town, considerable village or small hamlet where the wants of the community are supplied. Who are we? Brown's Iron Bit-

DESIRABLE FARM AND SUM-

The former residence of Dr. James Maury Morris, in the Green Springs, Louisa coun-ty, will be sold at auction, on the premises, By virtue of a deed of trust from Thomas D. Ryan and wife to the undersigned trustees, dated May 5, 1888, and duly recorded in the clerk's office of the Richmond Chancery Court, we shall sell by public anction, on the premises, in the order hereinafter named, on FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1886. THURSDAY THE 13TH INSTANT.

THURSDAY THE 13TH INSTANT.

A small and productive FARM of some 300 ACRES is attrached to it.

The HUINE is old-fashioned and out of repair, but is in the heart of a neighborhood proverbial for its attractions, within easy reach of the Chesapeake and ohio failroad, and close to a mineral spring whose fame ante-dates the century.

The deed under which the sale is made requires CASH, but there is a second incumbrance of $1.000 or $1.200 as to which one, two, and three years' time will be given, the interest being paid annually; and it is quite probable that for any surplus over both mortgages (the first is some $2.100 or $2.200) time will also be given.

A great bargain may be expected, whether for residence, productle farming, or speculation.

Trustee. after named, on FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1886.
